

Disability Awareness Training FREE for Businesses throughout Oregon

Presented by Oregon Vocational Rehabilitation (VR) and Oregon Commission for the Blind (OCB)

This training is relevant to human resource professionals, managers and staff of any interested business, educational institute or government agency

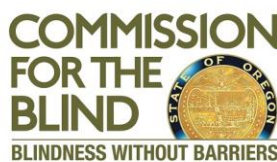

Workplace topics include:
Identifying and Eliminating Unconscious Bias
Cultivating an Inclusive Culture
Words Matter: Let's Talk Disability
Reasonable Accommodation and more

In addition, OCB can provide training on topics including technology and accommodations used for existing and future employees with vision loss

Trainings can be modified specifically to meet the needs and interests of your business and attendees

For questions or to schedule a training, please contact Kim Alejo (VR) at (503)856-2050 or kim.a.alejo@dhsosha.state.or.us

Morgan Rincon (OCB) at (503) 841-8788
Molly James (OCB) at (503) 527-9958
or either at business.relations@cfb.state.or.us

WHO WE ARE

State programs providing no cost services to businesses and job seekers

OCB will help you recruit qualified Oregonians with vision loss

VR supports all other disabilities

Dedicated team of professionals throughout Oregon, including business coordinators, counselors, assistive technology instructors, job coaches and employment specialists

Your partner in diversity, equity and inclusion of individuals with disabilities